Gary Persinger has owned property in Dewey Beach for 30 years. Before joining the Town Council, he served on the Planning and Zoning Commission and on the Comprehensive Development Plan Working Group. For more than 10 years, he has been treasurer of his condo association in Dewey Beach and was treasurer of several PTA organizations for his children's schools.

Gary earned Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Statistics, and completed additional post-Master's coursework at George Washington University. He spent more than 30 years in the pharmaceutical industry managing research and policy development for state and Federal legislative and regulatory efforts, and provided input to government agencies including GAO and Congressional Budget Office.

His wife Mary is a retired teacher who during the course of her career taught high school English, and Algebra and Latin in middle school. Gary and Mary reside in Olney, Maryland, and have three children and nine grandchildren. Dewey Beach is a year-round second home for the whole family.
